An exceptional place in the heart of the Alps

The association NEIGE et SOLEIL welcomes you in Savoie, in the village of Val-Cenis Bramans, Haute Maurienne. Situated at an altitude of 1,250 m on the road to the Mont-Cenis pass, marking the border with Italy, where you can enjoy magnificent scenery. Surrounded by 4 peaks over 3,500 m, on the edge of the Vanoise National Park, the valley is illuminated all year round by the sun filtering through the mountains.

10 minutes away from the ski resort of Val-Cenis Vanoise, the village is a popular place for alpine skiing and snowboarding lovers. The 30 km of marked trails that surround the town are also a delight for cross-country skiing enthusiasts. In summer, hikers enjoy the many walks that offer majestic panoramas. They meet thrill enthusiasts who indulge in the joys of mountain biking, tree and rock climbing or canyoning.

At the foot of the famous Esseillon forts, this timeless place is part of a lively Savoyard tradition. The houses reveal their lauze roofs, characteristic of the regional architecture. A rich local artisanal industry, involving many cooperatives and workshops, contribute to the authenticity of the valley. Val-Cenis Bramans remains a preserved place that ensures you a truly exotic holiday !
